Volume 12 transports us back to the familiar setting of Eis High School, where Kou Mabuchi and Futaba Yoshioka are now in their final year. As they approach graduation, they realize that their feelings for each other have only intensified with time. However, their path to happiness is not without its obstacles.

Kou's unresolved issues from his past continue to haunt him, casting a shadow over their relationship. Futaba, determined to support Kou, finds herself torn between her own desires and her love for him. Amidst the turmoil, they must confront their true feelings and make choices that will shape their future.

As the school year progresses, the bond between Kou and Futaba is put to the test. They face external pressures, misunderstandings, and the bittersweet realization that their time together is drawing to a close. Through it all, they learn the importance of communication, forgiveness, and the unwavering power of friendship.

Io Sakisaka's storytelling in Volume 12 is both poignant and heartwarming. She deftly captures the complexities of adolescence, exploring themes of love, loss, and the bittersweet transition into adulthood. The characters are relatable and endearing, their struggles and triumphs resonating with readers of all ages.

The artwork in Volume 12 is as stunning as ever, with Sakisaka's signature style bringing the characters and their emotions to life. The panels are beautifully detailed, capturing the nuances of facial expressions and the subtle shifts in body language. The use of color and shading adds depth and atmosphere to each scene.
