Synopsis

In Iris Johansen's heart-stopping thriller 'Captive,' forensic sculptor and expert profiler Eve Duncan finds herself entangled in a deadly game of cat and mouse. When her close friend, Detective Jack MacAllister, is found brutally murdered, Eve is thrust into a chilling investigation that unearths a sinister plot threatening her own life and those she holds dear.

As Eve delves deeper into the twisted labyrinth of clues, she discovers that Jack's murder is part of a larger, more sinister scheme. A cunning and ruthless killer known only as 'The Collector' is targeting women with a striking resemblance to Eve, abducting and torturing them for an unknown purpose. With each victim, The Collector leaves behind a cryptic message, taunting Eve and hinting at her own impending captivity.

Driven by an unyielding determination to uncover the truth and avenge her friend's death, Eve teams up with Joe Quinn, a charismatic but troubled former cop. Together, they embark on a perilous journey, following a trail of gruesome clues and navigating a treacherous web of deceit. As they inch closer to The Collector's identity, Eve realizes that she is not just a target but the key to unraveling a horrifying secret that could shatter her world.
