In this gripping and unforgettable memoir, retired Marine Corps Colonel David H. Hackworth recounts the extraordinary true story of his battalion's harrowing 13-month combat tour in Vietnam. From the bloody battles of Hue City to the deadly ambushes in the jungle, Hackworth vividly portrays the horrors of war and the indomitable spirit of the Marines who fought it.

A Riveting Account of Courage and Sacrifice

Based on Hackworth's firsthand experiences and extensive interviews with his fellow Marines, this book offers an unflinching look at the brutal realities of combat. Readers will witness the unimaginable horrors that the Marines endured, from the relentless shelling to the close-quarters fighting that tested their courage to the breaking point.

But amidst the darkness, Hackworth also shines a light on the indomitable spirit of the Marines. Through their selfless acts of bravery, their unwavering loyalty, and their unbreakable bonds of brotherhood, they found strength and hope even in the darkest of times.

A Legacy of Honor and Sacrifice

The Marines of the 3rd Battalion, 5th Marines paid a heavy price for their service. Many were killed or wounded, and their families were forever changed by their sacrifice. But their legacy lives on, a testament to their courage, their determination, and their unwavering commitment to their country.

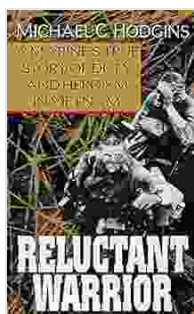

In this powerful and moving tribute, Hackworth honors the memory of his fallen comrades and celebrates the unbreakable bonds of brotherhood that forged them into a legendary force.
